Re Cleveland airtel to Bureau, 5/18/66.

On [redacted] Prob.) furnished the following information:

A small meeting was held at [redacted] farm, Oregonia, Ohio, 5/22/66. It was decided at the meeting that the planned three day klan rally for 5/28, 29, and 30/66, would be cancelled and held instead over the 7/4/66, weekend. The klan rally was cancelled because it was felt that there was not enough time to inform interested klan members about details of the rally, and this would have probably resulted in very poor attendance.

No LHM being submitted by Cincinnati due to the rally cancellation.

[REDACTED]
RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

On September 25, 1965, members of the Kentucky State Police advised that among automobiles observed by them at a rally on that date of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held at the Old Sanfordtown ballfield located one mile South of Covington, Kentucky, was a 1959 Chevrolet station wagon bearing 1965 Kentucky license 567-136. Further it had been determined this license was registered to [REDACTED] Elsmere, Kentucky

b6
b7C

Information concerning the NKKKK is set forth in the appendix of this memorandum.

On January 25, 1966, [REDACTED] was contacted at her residence, [REDACTED] and she advised that she did own a 1959 Chevrolet Station Wagon, but that her husband sold this vehicle to a [REDACTED] around July of 1965. She stated that [REDACTED] was employed at the Barnett Texaco Service Station in Florence, Kentucky.

[REDACTED] advised that neither she nor anyone in the family was a member of the Klan or ever has been a member of the Klan. She also stated that no one in the family, including herself, had ever attended a Klan rally either in Ohio or the Northern Kentucky area.

[REDACTED] advised that she recalled reading in the paper items concerning Klan rallies which were held in the Covington, Kentucky area in September of 1965, but she stated at this time she was certain she did not own the 1959 Chevrolet Station Wagon.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] orally advised SA [redacted] or [redacted] that at a regular NKKKK Klavern #6 meeting held 6-2-66, at Cleveland a collection of $20.00 was taken up for the defense fund of klansmen arrested at Dillsboro, Indiana, late 1965.
This money is to be turned over to Ohio State NKKKK [redacted]

NKKKK collections for the forthcoming Dillsboro, Indiana, trial have previously been reported to the Bureau and as it appears that these collections are on a continuing basis at Klavern meetings this has therefore not been made the subject of a letterhead memorandum.

Copies of informant's report relative to the above will subsequently be furnished the Cincinnati and Indianapolis

Synopsis:

On 1/12/66, information received that [REDACTED] of National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) in North Carolina, had gotten religion and announced his intention of resigning from NKKKK. [REDACTED] was interviewed 4/15/66, at which time he advised he is no longer associated with any phase of NKKKK. He stated that there was never anything to this organization and that it never got off the ground. [REDACTED] Raleigh, N.C., was interviewed 5/5/66 and advised he was formerly [REDACTED] of the Raleigh, N. C., Klavern of NKKKK. He stated the organization is presently in a stagnant position due to the inapt leadership of [REDACTED] said the policy of NKKKK is one of complete non-violence. According to a source, the last meeting of the Raleigh Unit of NKKKK was held in late November, 1965, at which time it was decided that no further meetings would be held until June or July, 1966.

DETAILS:

[REDACTED] advised that on [REDACTED] of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) in North Carolina, stated he had "gotten religion" and announced his intention of resigning from NKKKK. He proposed that he [] and [] travel throughout North Carolina designating themselves as ex-Klansmen and hold revival-type meetings during which they would tell the truth about the Klan.

CE 157-193

On April 15, 1966, [] was interviewed at his residence, [] by an Agent of the FBI in connection with another matter.

[] advised he is no longer associated with any phase of the NKKKK. He explained he has "found the way of the Lord" and has joined the church. [] said there was never anything to the NKKKK and he does not believe he ever recruited a member. He said this organization never got off the ground although he did go to Raleigh, North Carolina, to obtain papers for incorporation. He stated "the man from Georgia," not further identified, told him that he would have to send 50 per cent of all the money he took in to this man in Georgia. He advised the only people in the NKKKK in North Carolina were his wife and he and that it was a short-lived operation.

[] advised on [] that the last meeting of the Raleigh Klavern of the NKKKK was held during the latter part of November, 1965. This meeting, which took place at 2009 Miles Street, Raleigh, was attended by approximately five persons. [] led the meeting. The person who resides at [] stated he did not wish anymore meetings to be held at his residence. A discussion was held concerning a possible meeting place and no suitable place was known; therefore, it was decided no future meetings would be held until at least June or July, 1966. Since

b6
b7C
b7D

CE 157-193

that time no information has been received indicating there is any interest in again holding meetings of this klavern.

It is not known if there are any other units of the NKKKK operating in North Carolina.

[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed on May 5, 1966, by a Special Agent of the FBI concerning another matter.

During this interview [redacted] advised he was formerly [redacted] of the Raleigh Unit of NKKKK and said that he is [redacted] #4 of NKKKK but declined to state whether there are additional units other than at Raleigh.

[redacted] stated that [redacted]
[redacted] was appointed [redacted] of this organization sometime around the beginning of 1965. He said the NKKKK is presently in a stagnant position due to the inapt leadership of [redacted]

He advised that he is attempting to set up a meeting with JAMES VENABLE, Atlanta, Georgia, who is head of the NKKKK, as a result of determining that $50 which was given to [redacted] by the Raleigh Klavern sometime last year had never been forwarded to the national headquarters.

[redacted] stated he has had no recent contact with [redacted] and does not know his present activities. He said he had been asked to take the job of [redacted] by an individual whose identity he refused to disclose.

He advised the policy of the NKKKK is one of complete non-violence and that the organization is opposed to cross burnings and other forms of harassment. He said the organization is a segregationist group and that he joined the NKKKK after a discussion with [redacted] at which time it was his belief that the organization would attempt to fight Communism and integration by getting out the white vote.

CE 157-193

He advised he would not disclose any information concerning the membership of NKKKK. He advised that it is his hope that at some future time a meeting will be held at which a new Grand Dragon of the organization for North Carolina can be elected.

On [redacted] advised that the NKKKK has not been holding any meetings in the Raleigh area and no information is available indicating meetings will be held in the future.

Today [] (PROB) advised as follows:

A Klan rally has been definitely scheduled to be held on [] farm, Oregonia, Ohio over the week end of July 2, 3, and 4, 1966. Some of the details were discussed 6/19/66 on [] farm, however, complete arrangements have not been handled as yet.

There is a possibility that [] will furnish pertinent information to the news media over week end of June 25, concerning the planned rally. As yet no letters have been mailed out to Klansmen inviting them to attend the rally, however, this will probably be done within the next five to six days.

There is a strong possibility that JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard captioned Klan, will attend this rally.

An individual named [] from Akron, Ohio, has been identified as the [] sitting on the [] of NKKKK in Ohio. [] identity was previously unknown.

with and the one that takes his place will have to be done away with and all others who come after that. He said each member of the Klan would have to be prepared to help do away with the Federal inspectors.

At the meeting of the Barnesville unit held at Barnesville, Georgia, [redacted] a member of that unit, told the members present about his trip to Washington, D.C., to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) which was investigating Klan activities. [redacted] stated he contacted JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, and VENABLE told him not to worry since he was not going to tell the Committee anything about Klan activities.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

At the meeting of Barnesville unit held [redacted] a member of that unit, made a talk to those present and stated the Klan may have to go underground. He said that in that event, the Klan would break up into small groups of 5 or less with only the leader to report on the activities of the squads. [redacted] claimed he knew the names of all FBI Agents and the tag numbers of their cars. [redacted] instructed the members not to reveal the names of the members of the Klan on penalty of death and told the members not to tell the FBI anything if questioned. [redacted] told those present that they could get any kind of a weapon, including shotguns, M-1 rifles, etc., at Smith's Garage, which is located on the west side of La Grange, Georgia. [redacted] offered to cut off shotgun barrels without charge. [redacted] said that pump shotguns eject shells and leave evidence, whereas, shotguns with "ears" have to be broken open and the empty cartridges can be placed in the shooter's pocket.

AT 157-60

On January 15, 1966, five members of the Barnesville unit of the NKKKK met at the Klavern building. Members were dressed in black clothing; three other men arrived. These men were not dressed in black. These eight waited for [redacted] an employee of the Propane Gas Company, Milner, Georgia, to arrive with crosses and gasoline but [redacted] failed to come to the Klavern. This group had planned to burn three crosses in Griffin, Georgia, on the night of [redacted] but it was decided then that the cross burnings should be delayed for two weeks. One of those present made a statement that one of the crosses would have to be burned in front of the home of Chief of Police LEO BLACKWELL, Griffin, Georgia. Chief BLACKWELL had testified before HCUA hearings. The purpose of the cross burnings was to obtain publicity.

On [redacted] members of the Barnesville unit of NKKKK went to Griffin, Georgia, to determine plans for cross burnings at Griffin, Georgia, on the night of January 29, 1966. The members of that unit had been unable to find the location of the residence of Chief of Police BLACKWELL at Griffin and, therefore, were unable to burn a cross in the front of BLACKWELL's home. It was decided to postpone the cross burnings until a later time. The cross burning was postponed indefinitely.

During January, 1966, [redacted] and his [redacted] the Barnesville unit of the NKKKK, made plans to establish a private school in Lamar County, Georgia, in which county Barnesville is located. They said the school would be located at the [redacted] church which is on the [redacted] property and the [redacted] would be [redacted]. [redacted] said the school would have no connection with the Klan. The purpose of organizing the school is based on the belief by the [redacted] that public schools in Lamar County would be integrated by the Fall of 1966.

[redacted] said that a [redacted] of Griffin was helping to prepare the bylaws and obtain a charter for that school.

IV. FINANCES

The exact amount in the treasury of the NKKKK is not known, however, its treasury is generally very small, amounting to usually less than $100.

[REDACTED]

V. PUBLICATIONS AND PROPAGANDA

The NKKKK is not known to have issued any publications or conducted propaganda type activity in recent months.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

On April 30, 1966, a rally sponsored by NKKKK was held in a pasture owned by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of NKKKK, at Stone Mountain, Georgia. Approximately 75 people attended the rally and cross burning. Twelve were dressed in Klan robes. The public speaking began at approximately 8:20 p.m. It was opened with a prayer by a person identified as the Imperial Kludd. The first speaker was VENABLE who stated that the white politician has sold the white people in America down the river for the Negro vote. VENABLE stated that if the present civil rights bill now pending in Congress is passed, people would not be able to travel from one city to another without first registering and furnishing information as to where they were going and what their business was. VENABLE stated that bill, if made law, would also take away the rights of the people to carry firearms. VENABLE called for the Klan to go underground and stated Klansmen should enlighten the white people as to what was going on. VENABLE stated the Federal School Guideline is another attempt by the Federal Government to take away rights from the people. VENABLE urged all white people who believe in the constitutional form of government to join the Klan and urged all of them to register and vote.

Following VENABLE's speech, a man dressed in a black robe, whose identity is unknown and who stated he was from South Carolina, made a short speech. That person

b6
b7C
b7D

AT 157-60

stated that President JOHNSON had said he was going to finish the Klan but he wanted the President to know that the Klan was riding before he came into power and would be riding long after he was gone and forgotten.

Following that second speech, two crosses were burned. The Klansmen who were in robes circled around the cross and were joined by approximately five men who were dressed in black shirts and trousers. One of the men dressed in black was [redacted] who was wearing a black holster and revolver.

[redacted]

On January 7, 1966, Chief of Police SAM YARBROUGH, Pulaski, Tennessee, advised that JAMES R. VENABLE, a white male who claimed to be a Chaplain, and an elderly white woman appeared at the Pulaski, Tennessee, Police Department on December 24, 1965, and made inquiry concerning a rally to be held in Pulaski that day. [redacted] advised them there was no Klan meeting to be held at Pulaski on that date to his knowledge. VENABLE appeared at the "Giles Free Press," a Pulaski, Tennessee, newspaper, and announced their presence in Pulaski. VENABLE advised he did not contemplate any march or parade on the part of NKKKK while in Pulaski. The newspaper asked VENABLE to pose in his robe and he refused to do so. [redacted] advised there was no Klan activity in Pulaski on December 24, 1965.

On the evening of November 25, 1965, the NKKKK held a rally and cross burning in the pasture of JAMES R. VENABLE at Stone Mountain, Georgia. The rally had been advertised as the 50th anniversary celebration of the founding of the Ku Klux Klan atop Stone Mountain. About 35 to 40 people were present and the rally started at about 8 p.m. The first speaker was [redacted] who claimed the President of the United States was giving America to the communists. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of NKKKK, was the main speaker. He said white people must unite and restore freedom to America. He stated the Klan will live forever regardless of investigation by the HCUA. He said the Klan will never give the country to Negroes and communists.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

During December, 1965, [redacted] St. Louis, Missouri, stated he planned to attend a meeting of the NKKKK at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on January 1, 1966. [redacted] had recently been promoting the NKKKK in St. Louis and claimed to be a member of that organization.

An organizational meeting of the proposed St. Louis NKKKK was scheduled to be held at the residence of [redacted] [redacted] at 6:30 p.m., February 12, 1966. The meeting was arranged by [redacted] who claimed to have been [redacted] of the NKKKK for the State of Missouri and claimed to have a charter granted to him to institute a new Klavern in St. Louis.

[redacted] was interested in establishing a Klavern and becoming a member of NKKKK. The organizational meeting originally scheduled for January 29, 1966, was cancelled at the last minute by [redacted] who said the area was being watched.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

On [redacted] nine persons attended an organizational meeting and initiation of a proposed St. Louis Klavern of the NKKKK at St. Louis, Missouri. The meeting was held at the residence of [redacted]

[redacted] who claimed to have been [redacted] for the State of Missouri was not present. In [redacted] absence, [redacted] St. Louis, presided. Four persons were sworn into membership, including [redacted]

No specific program was decided upon. [redacted] advised those present that [redacted] had developed a [redacted]

During January, 1966, organizational difficulties in the UKA resulted in consideration being given by some members of the UKA in the State of Mississippi to joining with the NKKKK.

No apparent interest resulted in considerations for joining the NKKKK after the partial breakup of the UKA

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name of United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The [] source and a [] source advised in [] that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is [] b [] and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

b6
b7C
b7D

On [] the [] source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The [] source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

[] source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

DATE 8-23-88 BY SP8uf/ak

On June 20, 1966, a confidential source of the Cincinnati FBI Office furnished the following information to a representative of the Cincinnati FBI Office:

A Klan rally has definitely been scheduled to be held on [REDACTED] farm, Oregonia, Ohio (Warren County) over the week end of July 2, 3, and 4, 1966. [REDACTED] is the leading force behind this rally and will evidently be the main organizer. Some of the details concerning the rally were discussed on [REDACTED] farm, June 19, 1966, and as of now complete arrangements have not as yet been handled.

There is a possibility that [REDACTED] will furnish pertinent information to the news media over the week end of July 25, 1966 concerning this scheduled rally.

There is a strong possibility that James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard captioned Klan, will attend the rally.

On June 24, 1966, this same confidential source advised as follows:

[REDACTED] has mailed out an unknown number of letters to Klansmen and individuals sympathetic to the Klan inviting them to captioned Klan rally. At the present time, there is no indication how many individuals will attend the rally. Two crosses are expected to be burned during the PM of Saturday, July 2, and the evening of Monday, July 4, 1966. The rally is expected to be staged without incident or violence.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
OF OHIO, INC. (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, Karen Crabtree, Clerk, Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111.

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves, liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind.

The incorporation papers were signed by [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] are the corporation trustees.

On October 23, 1964, [redacted]
[redacted] State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Organization was on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list. [redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list, but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and therefore entirely legitimate.

In actuality the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

This case is being RUC'd to Atlanta as the Centre, Alabama Klavern of the NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN has been disbanded and was the only known Klavern of captioned organization in the Birmingham Division.

This case will be reopened if and when captioned organization is reorganized.

This report covers an extended period from November, 1965, to June, 1966, due to the exceedingly limited activity and attempts to organize the Centre, Alabama Klavern of captioned organization, which is the only activity of this organization in the Birmingham Division. Consequently, the format of this report does not conform to the general format used in organization reports.

Birmingham Source [redacted] advised on [redacted]
[redacted] his informant in captioned [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] and they receive their mail through Post Office Box [redacted] Centre, Alabama. There were 22 people present, 18 men and four women. According to the information this group is dangerous and appear to be ready for violent action. At the meeting there was much talk of violence against Negroes.

Birmingham Source [redacted] advised on [redacted] that [redacted] is supposed to be the [redacted] the NATIONAL KKKK in Centre, Alabama. The other suspected members of this organization are [redacted]
[redacted]

He further stated that [redacted] whom he believes lives in Georgia comes to Centre, Alabama, occasionally and meets with the Centre, Alabama, group.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

Birmingham Source [redacted] advised that he has talked to the members of the NATIONAL KKKK in Centre, Alabama, and he understands that they have been meeting at [redacted] place on the Hokes Bluff Road, about six miles from Centre, Alabama. This is an old store building which is located on [] property. He further stated he knows several of the Klansmen and believes [] is the [] of this group.

Birmingham Source [] furnished the following information regarding the Centre, Alabama, Klavern:

On March 7, 1966, a [] from Centre, Alabama, met with the Gadsden, Alabama, Klavern and advised that he is working to pull most members of the Centre Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK over to the UKA, KKKK, here at Gadsden until they can get 25 members to start their own Klavern, which will be enough to enable them to receive a charter of the UKA, KKKK.

On March 8, 1966, [] from Centre, Alabama, was to contact [] of Gadsden, Alabama, UKA, KKKK, on Sunday morning as to how many members he will be able to transfer to the UKA, KKKK.

On March 13, 1966, [] of the Centre, Alabama, Klavern, and another Klansman, contacted [] of the Gadsden, UKA, KKKK, and advised him the unit, or over fifty percent of the members of the Centre, Alabama, Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK, would transfer to the UKA, KKKK. Members from the Fort Payne and Gadsden units will meet at Centre, Alabama, March 19, 1966, for the change over.

On March 19, 1966, a meeting was held by the Centre, Alabama, Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK at the home of [] who is the [] of the Centre, Alabama, Klavern. The members then proceeded to an old church and the Centre, Alabama, NATIONAL KKKK voted to transfer to the UKA, KKKK. There were ten members of the Centre Klavern in attendance. [] and [] who are presently members of the NATIONAL KKKK will not be accepted in the UKA, KKKK, as voted on by the Centre members, as these men and a few others caused too much friction within the unit.

b7C
b7D

On March 6, 1966, a rally was reported to have been scheduled by the NATIONAL KKKK at Centre, Alabama, on May 14, 1966. The exact place and time were not known.

Birmingham Source [] furnished the following information regarding the NATIONAL KKKK in Centre, Alabama:

On February 5, 1966, [] who organized the Centre, Alabama, Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK, is attempting to organize a unit of this organization in Fort Payne and [] Fort Payne Klavern, UKA, KKKK, is opposing his efforts.

On March 20, 1966, [] Fort Payne, Alabama, Klavern, UKA, KKKK, met with the new unit of the Centre, Alabama, organization of the UKA. The [] at Centre is [] from Route 2, Gadsden, Alabama. They met in old church house.

The Centre, Alabama, Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK has come over to the UKA, KKKK. Information was received that the Northern Georgia NATIONAL KKKK organizations have changed over to the UKA, KKKK.

AT CENTRE, ALABAMA

[] Route 2, Centre, Alabama, advised on May 4, 1966, that her husband was formerly a member of the NATIONAL KKKK in Centre, Alabama, but is no longer active and the Centre Klavern has split up with almost all of the members joining with the UKA, KKKK.

[] NATIONAL KKKK, for the State of Alabama, stopped by some two weeks ago trying to get the NATIONAL KKKK at Centre reorganized and active as it is now inactive and [] wanted her to deliver a message to her husband to try to get all the members together for a meeting but was unsuccessful. [] who [] of the Centre, Alabama, Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK, did not go over to the UKA, KKKK, and probably will be [] if and when they start meeting again.

[] of the Centre Klavern of the NATIONAL KKKK advised on May 16, 1966, that the organization had split up with practically all the members joining the UKA, KKKK. The NATIONAL KKKK had not met in several months, though ~~a~~ rally was scheduled on May 14, 1966, to be held at [redacted] farm, about three miles south of Centre, Alabama, but the scheduled speakers did not come and there were only a few people in attendance.

He stated he had not joined with the UKA, KKKK, and at present was not attending any Klan meetings.

APPENDIX

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The [] source and a [] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The [] by [] and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

[] source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

[] source advised on [] that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that [] is the [] this organization and was elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the national office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to the carport of [] residence, #18 Lake Sherwood, Star Route, Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

ASSOCIATED KLANS IN AMERICA,
FORMERLY KNOWN AS
NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

On June 21, 1966, a confidential source advised that a national meeting of the Associated Klans in America, formerly known as National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto as an appendix, was held at Tucker, Georgia, on Saturday and Sunday, June 18 - 19, 1966.

The Saturday night meeting began at 8:00 P.M., in the Carl Garmon Building, with a dinner. During and after dinner, the meeting amounted to a general discussion of the new Civil Rights Act before Congress, and the inactivity of the Klan due to the members being scared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

JAMES R. VENABLE played a tape of a talk made by a Negro in Chicago, Illinois, at a meeting at which Venable also spoke, about four weeks ago. The Negro said he had been in the hands of the Klan three times and they had protected him from his own people. He said the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) and the demonstrations and marches sponsored by the Civil Rights organizations are Communist-inspired.

The Saturday night meeting ended about 10:30 P.M., and the meeting was reconvened about 8:45 A.M., Sunday, June 19, 1966,

James R. Venable made a motion that the unpaid past dues of all member Klans be suspended, and that the member Klans keep their dues current beginning June 1, 1966. ~~The motion passed.~~

On Venable's motion, [redacted] from the Atlanta area and [redacted] from Jacksonville, Florida, were permitted to sit in this meeting.

[redacted] made a motion that ladies be permitted to attend the national meeting if they were coming as delegates.

[redacted] made a motion that roll not be called at the meetings, but that the secretary contact each person present to see who they were and whom they represented. This motion was passed.

[redacted] made a motion that Venable write a letter to all Klansmen that appeared at the investigation in Washington, D. C., and all Klansmen he knew anywhere, to come to the Klan rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the Labor Day week-end, and also invite all new Klan groups to apply for membership in the Association. This motion was passed.

[redacted] said he knew of several Klansmen who had been approached by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to work for them. He said the Klan has to be more secret and go underground. He did not make any specific suggestions, and no action was taken.

ASSOCIATED KLANS IN AMERICA

James R. Venable said that, as soon as they get the funds to operate on, he is going to start a newspaper that will cover Klan activities all over the United States. He said it will cost each Klansman $10 to $12 a year. He said the newspapers in the North give the Klan organizations good publicity, but the newspapers in the South just sneer the Klan name.

[redacted] made a motion that they continue to look for a new chairman, and that the new chairman of the Associated Klans in America be elected at the Sunday meeting following the National Klan Day Rally on Saturday, September 3, 1966. This motion was passed.

b6

A motion made by [redacted] was passed that the [redacted] elected on September 4, 1966, must be a person present at that meeting.

The dues collected at this meeting were $40. The balance in the treasury, after crediting the dues, was $42.76.

The meals were paid for by contributions taken up from the Klansmen present.

The meeting on Sunday closed at 10:50 A.M..

In addition to the above listed delegates, at the Saturday night meeting, there were about twenty (20) unidentified members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and five (5) unidentified Klansmen from South Carolina present.

150; however, a good percentage of those present consisted of curious onlookers, members of the news media, and others. As far as actual Klan member attendance and enthusiasm were concerned, the rally was a physical and financial flop. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was definitely disappointed at the small turnout, and on occasion, expressed his disappointment.

The Warren County Sheriff and Deputies from Lebanon, Ohio, were on hand and closely observed the rally. About ten or twelve individuals were wearing Klan robes, and two of these individuals were wearing Klan masks over their faces. The Warren County Sheriff's Office arrested these two Klan members during the rally, charging them with wearing a mask at a public gathering to conceal their identity. Court action is currently pending, and both individuals were released on bond. They are identified as [REDACTED] age [REDACTED] from Mapleton, Georgia, and [REDACTED] age [REDACTED] from Miamisburg, Ohio. No disturbance or serious incidents took place. A cross was burned late Saturday night, July 2, 1966, and another cross was expected to be burned during the night of July 4, 1966.

On July 5, 1966, this same confidential source advised that the rally was a solid failure and members in attendance continually argued among themselves concerning Klan policies and objectives, which resulted in confusion and lack of leadership. [REDACTED] discussed the possibility of holding additional small rallies on his farm during the future coming weeks, but nothing positive was decided as yet. This source added that if Klan participation and lack of cooperation continues as it did during this rally, the organization can be expected to fall apart and be completely ineffective in the future.

On July 6, 1966, Byron Kennard, Sheriff, Warren County Sheriff's Office, Lebanon, Ohio, advised he increased his deputy force to handle law enforcement and observation of captioned rally to insure that no one in the vicinity would be physically harmed and to eliminate any contemplated violence before it had a chance to get started. This decision in displaying a "show of force" definitely resulted in the maintenance of law and order while the rally was in progress. On one or two separate instances, tempers flared among persons attending the rally, and insults were shouted at several of the Deputies; however, no major disturbance occurred.

Sheriff Kennard further advised two individuals in attendance, identified as [REDACTED] age [REDACTED] from Mapleton, Georgia, and [REDACTED] age [REDACTED] from Miamisburg, Ohio, were placed under arrest and charged with wearing a mask at a public gathering to conceal their identities. [REDACTED]
(INFORMATION CONCERNING)

"The Sun-Press", a weekly newspaper serving the Eastern Suburbs of Cleveland, Ohio, contained an article on June 16, 1966, reporting that Tom Shaughnessy, age 32, a reporter for the "Sun Herald", is scheduled to appear at Washington, D.C. on Monday, June 20, 1966, to tell members of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) how his automobile was burned twice and the car of his wife was burned once.

The article stated that Ohio 23rd District Congressman William E. Minshall is sparkplugging the investigation.

It was reported that Klan sympathizer [REDACTED] founder of the local chapter of the National Christian Conservative Society, along with several of his "henchmen", were also expected to be subpoenaed.

The article further reported that [REDACTED] believes that the Klan is responsible for these incidents as a result of unfavorable stories written by him regarding the Klan.

The article stated that Cleveland Fire Department Arson Investigators have questioned members of the National Christian Conservative Society about the burnings.

Rolled up copies of the May 12, 1966, issue of "The Lakewood Sun-Post", carrying a story by Shaughnessy regarding a speech by a Klan official in Lakewood, Ohio, on May 7, 1966, were used to start the May 12, 1966, fire.

The article also reported that a superior of Shaughnessy's stated that from all evidence this was a serious attempt by the Klan and its fellow travelers to silence a hated reporter.

On June 17, 1966, [redacted] Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department, advised that [redacted] employed by the Sun Newspapers, who own "The Lakewood Sun Post", "The Sun-Press", and the "Sun Herald", weekly newspapers.

He advised that [redacted] in the past has been an unsuccessful candidate for the Cleveland City Council. He advised that his department has no information indicating that the Klan is responsible for the burning incidents. He stated that during the early part of this year [redacted] wrote several articles in "The Lakewood Sun Post" advocating that the residents of that all white community should welcome Negro families into that city.

b7C

On June 17, 1966, [redacted] Arson Squad, Cleveland, Ohio, Fire Department, advised that there has been no evidence turned up to date that [redacted] any of his associates, or that any individuals connected with the Klan are responsible for the burning incidents but that this is only the opinion of [redacted]. He further advised that his agency has only interviewed one individual other than [redacted] and that is [redacted] because he was suggested by [redacted] as a suspect. The investigation is still continuing.

On June 17, 1966, Chief of Police Joseph Mc Mahon, Lakewood, Ohio, Police Department, advised that his agency had no information regarding these burning incidents.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 17, 1966, that Klavern Number 6, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), Cleveland, Ohio, is not responsible for setting fire to the automobiles belonging to Shaughnessy and his wife. This source stated that Annable is not at this time either a member of the NKKKK or of the United Klans of America (UKA) and has never belonged to either organization.

Characterizations of the NKKKK and the UKA are attached.

The "Cleveland Press", a daily newspaper published in Cleveland, Ohio, reported on May 9, 1966, that James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, was sponsored as a speaker by the National Christian Conservative Society on the night of May 7, 1966, at the Lakewood, Ohio, Civic Auditorium. The article identified Robert Annable as the President of the National Christian Conservative Society.

The "Plain Dealer", a daily newspaper published at Cleveland, Ohio, reported on February 12, 1966, that Robert W. Annable, head of the North American Alliance of White People, testified before the HCUA on February 11, 1966. The article reported that Annable asserted that he was not a member of the Ku Klux Klan but he praised the organization and its leaders for "high ideals." He admitted that he had been offered an appointment as Grand Titan for the State of Ohio by Robert Shelton, Imperial Wizard of the UKA, but that he rejected it.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

On July 16, 1966, Norman Stuart, Sheriff, Medina County, Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held their rally as scheduled that day on the property of [redacted] in Medina County. (NKKKK appendix page attached.)

He said that a few people arrived at the site at about 11:00 a.m., and that when the rally ended that night at about 11:45 p.m. approximately 100 people had been there. However, he indicated that he did not believe that all in attendance were Klansmen, and that there were many spectators there out of curiosity. He said that at about 11:20 p.m., the Klansmen burned three crosses prior to dismissing.

On July 17, 1966, Sheriff Stuart advised that the rally had continued that day, however he estimated that only about 25 or 30 persons attended. He said the rally ended that night at about 9:00 p.m. and that no crosses were burned.

Sheriff Stuart advised that he had previously received rumors that Klansmen at the rally might wear masks in an attempt to test the Ohio State Law banning the wearing of masks, however, he said that at no time did he receive any reports of Klansmen wearing masks. He said that at about the same time the crosses were lighted on July 16, 1966, there was a loud noise originating from the rally site. He said that in his opinion this noise was that of a firecracker, and that the same noise was also heard again at the same site at about 12:30 p.m. on July 17, 1966.

At about 8:00 p.m. on July 17, 1966, Sheriff Stuart advised his office received reports that some Klansmen were driving up and down the roads adjacent to the rally site, and that upon investigation they determined that there were two cars and one pickup truck with a total of about eight Klansmen in them. He said that in the back of the pickup truck was a female wearing a Klansmen's robe, and also a dummy in a Klansmen's robe. He said that the dummy also was wearing a robe, and that from a distance, the dummy appeared to be a person.

Sheriff Stuart further advised that there were no anti-Klan demonstrators at the rally, and that there were no arrests or acts of violence.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that James Venable, National Chairman of the NKKKK, presided over the rally on July 16, 1966, and July 17, 1966.

[redacted] was interviewed at his residence [redacted] at which time he was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent, the purpose of the interview, and the fact that he did not have to make a statement to the interviewing Agent, and he could terminate the interview at any time he desired.

[redacted] was asked if he was a member of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and he declined to state if he was a member at the present time, but he did advise that he had attended a rally of the Ku Klux Klan conducted on the farm of [redacted] in Orgonia, Ohio, during the summer of 1965. He also declined to state whether he had actually signed a membership card or paid an initiation fee into the Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] advised, however, that he does not intend to participate in any activities sponsored by the Klan, since he does not agree with some of the Klan programs concerning force and violence against some minority groups. He stated, however, that he was in sympathy with some of the Klan objectives.

[redacted] continued that he has recently received information from the Ku Klux Klan indicating that there would be a meeting on July 4, 1966, at [redacted] farm in Orgonia, Ohio. He stated that he did not intend to attend this Klan function or any other Klan function, since he was too busy at the present time supporting his family, and attempting to start a new business venture.

[redacted] could not identify any of the individuals whom he saw at the farm at [redacted] during the Ku Klux Klan Rally in the summer of 1965, and knew of no efforts to start a Klan clavern in the Northern Kentucky area at this time.

No dissemination is being made on a local level inasmuch as the information contained in the LHM is on a national level and further, the information was only made known by Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE to a Cleveland Racial Informant and a subject from the Pittsburgh office, the circumstances of which could lead to informant's identity should the information receive wide dissemination and especially if the information could be planted.

Offices receiving this communication should be very circumspect in the utilization of instant information in future reports and communications unless otherwise attached hereto.

A Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past concerning Klan matters, advised on July 19, 1966, that James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, on July 16, 1966, informed that it is very likely that the UKA and NKKKK and possibly one of the other major Klans would merge into one strong Klan in the near future.
Venable noted that the UKA and NKKKK are already in the

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

Sheriff Norman Stuart, Medina County, Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised on 7-23-66, that the Klan rally held by [redacted] on the property of [redacted] in Medina County began that afternoon and ended that night at about 11:20 p.m. following the burning of a cross. Sheriff Stuart said that during the lighting of the cross 31 persons were observed to be present, 13 of which had their right hands clasped over their hearts and their left hands extended forward at a 45° angle in Nazi-like fashion. He said that [redacted] NKKKK member from Lodi, Ohio, spoke at the rally. He said [redacted] used a loud-speaker system for his speech but that later the loud-speaker system was turned off and at that time it was announced that during the weekend of July 30 - 31, 1966, they were planning three separate rallies on different sites in Medina County.

Sheriff Stuart said that this rally continued on July 24, 1966, and terminated that evening. He said that there were no anti-Klan demonstrators; acts of violence or arrests.

On July 23, 1966, a Confidential Source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that James Venable, National Chairman of the NKKKK, did not attend the above rally, but that he is scheduled to appear at rallies in Medina County planned for the weekend of July 30 - 31, 1966.

Characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK), appears as an appendix attached hereto.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past concerning Klan matters, on August 1, 1966, informed that [redacted] Ohio [redacted] of the NKKKK.
and a small group of Klansmen met in the farmhouse of [redacted] [redacted] near Lodi, Ohio, on [redacted] at which time it was decided that an NKKKK rally would be held August 6 and 7, 1966, on [redacted] farm, which is located on County Road #90, about 1 1/2 miles west of State Route #76, which is about 2 miles south of Lodi, Ohio.

This group plans to place a paid advertisement announcing the rally in the "Akron Beacon Journal," a daily newspaper published in Akron, Ohio, and [redacted] will also mail out announcements to Klansmen and to individuals whose names he has accumulated in the past who have shown some interest in the Klan movement.

Norman J. Stuart, Sheriff, Medina County, Medina, Ohio, was advised of the above on August 1, 1966. He advised that adequate arrangements will be made to prevent any violence at this rally.

Synopsis: Information developed that members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) in Indiana joining United Klans of America, Inc. NKKKK meeting in Oregonia, Ohio, July 4th weekend in 1966 considered failure. NKKKK has filed suit U. S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana, to test unconstitutionality of the Indiana State laws which prohibit "racketeering in hate."

- P -

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is set forth in the appendix of this report.

INDIANA STATE ORGANIZATION

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] advised on [REDACTED] that information had come to his attention that two members of the NKKKK were no longer associated with this organization.

IP 157-175

[] stated both were now members of the United Klans of America, Inc.

A characterization of the United Klans of America, Inc. is set out in the appendix of this report.

[] further advised no information has been developed to date that this organization is attempting to organize in the State of Indiana.

Confidential Informant [] advised on [] that a rally was held by the NKKKK at Oregonia, Ohio. The meeting was considered a solid failure and members in attendance continually argued among themselves concerning Klan policies and objectives, which resulted in confusion and lack of leadership.

LITIGATION

The records of the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court, Southern District of Indiana, were made available by [] Clerk of the Court, on May 18, 1966.

The records reflect under Civil Action Number [] that a complaint for Declaratory Judgment and Injunction was filed.

The plaintiffs listed were [] and the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The defendants were listed as [] of the 7th Judicial Circuit of Indiana; [] as [] of the 18th Judicial Circuit of Indiana; [] of the 60th Judicial Circuit of Indiana; and [] as Attorney General of Indiana.

The basic complaint is the constitutionality of Indiana Acts of 1947, Chapter 56, set forth in Burns Indiana Statutes, Sections 10-904 through 10-914, and common relief is sought against all said officials in their official capacities.

IP 157-175

The statutes referred to are commonly known as the Indiana Anti-Racketeering in Hate Statutes.

The Clerk of the Court advised that the complaint requested a hearing on this matter by three Federal judges.

He advised no date has been set for this hearing.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
(KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS))

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The [] source and a [] source advised in [] [] that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is [] by [] and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern States.

On [] the [] source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The [] source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

The [] source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the Klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Three Separate NKKKK Rallies Held in Medina County, Ohio, July 30 and 31, 1966

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK), is attached.

Norman Stuart, Sheriff, Medina County, Medina, Ohio, advised on July 31, 1966, as follows regarding NKKKK rallies held in Medina County, Ohio, on July 30 and 31, 1966:

There were three rallies held. Rally #1 was on the property of [redacted] on [redacted]
Rally #2 was on the property of [redacted] on [redacted]
[redacted] Rally #3 was on the property of [redacted]
[redacted]

Only a few individuals appeared at rally site #2 on July 30, 1966, and they left there at about 6:30 PM that day and went to the location of rally #3. Some speeches were made at this site and then the group proceeded to the location of rally #1, where about two or three cars of Klansmen were already waiting.

b6
b7C

At rally site #1, James Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, appeared and a cross was burned at about 11:20 PM.
Approximately 50 or 60 persons were observed at this site.
About 15 individuals wore Klan robes, but none were seen wearing masks. Rally #1 was the only site where a cross was burned and the crowd dispersed immediately after the burning of the cross.

At rally site #3 on July 30, 1966, the Brunswick
Police Department presented citations to the [redacted] [redacted] for violations of various city ordinances regarding the use of loud speakers and the displaying of signs.

ENCLOSURE

Synopsis:

Klavern #6, with about 55 members, centered at Cleveland, Ohio, and Klavern #7, with about 30 members, centered at Akron, Ohio, continue to hold regular monthly meetings. [redacted] of North Canton, Ohio, is the [redacted] of Ohio and [redacted] of Akron, Ohio is the [redacted] of Ohio. Klaverns #6 and #7 officers set forth. NKKKK State Organizational Structure was formulated at an Ohio State Conference of the NKKKK held 5/8/66 at Cleveland. No information developed to indicate NKKKK actually planning a March on Washington, D.C. NKKKK picketed "The Cleveland Press" on 4/30/66 and NKKKK rallies were held in Medina County, Ohio on 7/16 and 17/66; 7/23 and 24/66 and 7/30 and 31/66. In addition, local Klansmen attended NKKKK Anniversary Rally held 7/2-4/66 at Oregonia, Ohio. NKKKK also participated in two picket demonstrations sponsored by NCCS during June, 1966. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE spoke at NCCS sponsored affair, 5/7/66 at Lakewood, Ohio. On 7/11/66, three NKKKK members burned a cross at a farm recently purchased by a Negro couple near Lodi, Ohio. UKA is presently organizing in Ohio and some NKKKK members indicate they will go over to UKA.

DETAILS:At Cleveland, Ohio

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) and United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA) is contained in the appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

[] on [] advised that the NKKKK has no headquarters within the confines of the Cleveland Division and to the best of his knowledge, the NKKKK has no headquarters within Ohio.

B. Charter Information

[] on [] advised that the NKKKK has no charter with the State of Ohio, although for a short period the NKKKK did have a charter which was granted by the State of Ohio and then revoked.

C. Objectives

[] advised on [] that through his association with the Klan movement, it is clear that the objectives of the NKKKK are to fight integration, bring about the repeal of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as well as to present the views of the white race in a favorable light by insuring that the various news media present not only the Negroes views but also that of the white race in any particular issue.

[] noted that these objectives in the Northern Ohio area are expected to be brought about by peaceful means by the vast majority of Klansmen, although a very small minority within the movement have eluded to or even suggested forms of violence and intimidation against the Negro race as a solution to the problem.

b6
b7C
b7D

D. National and State Officers

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that there are no officers on the National level within the State of Ohio.

[redacted] on [redacted] ^{SUBJECT ORGANIZATION} advised that at an Ohio State Conference of the NKKKK held May 8, 1966, at Cleveland, Ohio, JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, announced the appointment of [redacted] as the [redacted] for the State of Ohio.

In addition to the above, [redacted] ^{OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION} noted that the following individuals who reside within the Cleveland Division were elected State Officers and members of the State Executive Board at the Ohio State Conference held May 8, 1966:

[redacted]
[redacted]

~~NOT ORGANIZATION~~

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that he learned that [redacted] of AKRON, Ohio, is [redacted] of the NKKKK for the State of Ohio.

^{SUBJECT ORGANIZATION}

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] continues to be [redacted] for the Northeastern Ohio Regional Klan Section.

^{OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION}

E. Organizational Framework

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that on May 8, 1966, an Ohio State NKKKK Conference was held in Cleveland at which [redacted] presided and Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE attended. The following was a result of this conference:

^{OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION}

A State Executive Board was set up as a sort of court of appeals to handle grievances lodged against Klansmen and to settle disputes which are not settled on the Klavern level or in the event a Klansman is not satisfied with a Klavern ruling he may bring the matter to the State Executive Board. In the event a Klansman is not satisfied with the decision made by the State Executive Board, he may then bring the matter before the National Board.

CV 100-10261

A member representative from each Klavern will sit on the State Executive Board. This member representative will be selected by the Exalted Cyclops of the particular Klavern and in practice, will usually be the Exalted Cyclops.

State Klan officials below the rank of Vice Grand Dragon will be selected by a delegation whose membership will be composed of the Exalted Cyclops from each Klavern and two member representatives from each Klan who are to be appointed by their Exalted Cyclops.

The Grand Dragon and Vice Grand Dragon will be appointed on the national level and the Grand Dragon will have no powers of appointment. Klavern officials will be elected by the Klavern membership.

The State of Ohio was divided into four regional Klan sections. Each regional section will have at least one Great Titan and at least one Kleagle, although, heavily populated areas may have more than one Great Titan and Kleagle. The four regional Klan sections in Ohio are irregular portions of the State that are roughly equivalent to the Northeastern, Northwestern, Southeastern and Southwestern sections of Ohio.

II. KLAVERNS

A. Name and Location

[redacted] or [redacted] informed that to his knowledge there are only two functioning Klaverns within the Cleveland Division which are Klavern #6, centered in Cleveland, Ohio and Klavern #7, centered at Akron, Ohio. He noted that these two Klaverns are in the Northeastern Ohio Regional Klan Section and there are no organized Klaverns within the Northwestern Ohio Regional Klan Section, although applications for NKKKK membership have, in the past, been taken from individuals who reside within the Northwestern Ohio Regional Klan Section.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[] further noted that there is no concrete evidence other than Klaverns #6 and #7 exist in the Cleveland Division. He did note that in the past, [] has made reference to another active Klavern within 50 miles of Cleveland and it is felt that he was referring to a small group of Klansmen in the Lodi-Brunswick, Ohio area.

[] of Lodi, Ohio, is extremely active in Klan affairs and it is quite possible that Klansmen in this area occasionally meet but are not sufficient in numerical strength for the formation of an active Klavern.

[] on [] informed that he is only aware of two NKKKK Klaverns within the Northeastern Ohio Regional Klan Section and that they are Klavern #6 at Cleveland, Ohio and Klavern #7 at Akron, Ohio.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

B. Membership and Recruitment

Klavern #6 - Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that there are approximately 55 members carried on the rolls of Klavern #6, although only about 20 of these individuals are considered active members.

He noted that recruitment for the most part is by rallies held to attract individuals who may have an interest in the Klan movement.

Klavern #7 - Akron, Ohio

[] on [] informed that Klavern #7 Akron, Ohio, has approximately 30 members and of these, only about 15 are considered active members. He noted that recruitment has been by rallies held to attract membership.

C. Officers

Klavern #6 - Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 held an election on May 8, 1966, at which time the following individuals were elected:

b6
b7C
b7D

The position of Kligrapp (Secretary) was left open and the vacancy will be filled in the future. However, [redacted] noted that [redacted] was named the temporary Kligrapp and as of August 1, 1966, [redacted] was still considered the temporary Kligrapp.

OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

In addition to the above, [redacted] informed that at a Klavern #6 meeting held June 2, 1966, a Guard Unit was formed which is to handle the security at Klan rallies. [redacted] was named head of the Guard Unit and he will be assisted by [redacted] and [redacted]. These individuals are not officers of the Klavern, although a member can hold an office with the Klavern and still be a member of the Guard Unit.

Klavern #7 - Akron, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that the following are officers of Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio:

OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

III. ACTIVITIES

A. Meetings

Klavern #6 - Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 normally holds its meetings on the first Thursday of each month at 8:00 P.M. and on the third Sunday of each month at 2:00 P.M. Klavern #6 has no regular meeting place but currently rents available space under the name "SWL Radio Club".

[] advised on [] that Klavern #6 held a meeting on April 30, 1966 at the Franklin Room, Holiday Inn Motel, 16501 Brookpark Road, Brookpark, Ohio. About 20 Klansmen attended this meeting, including several Klansmen from southern Ohio who were sent to the meeting by [] Ohio [] for the NKKKK, in an attempt to control the election of Klavern #6 officers, which was to have been held on that day. [] of Klavern #6, refused to go along with the election and due to a stalemate, JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, was telephonically contacted in Georgia. VENABLE advised that the Klavern #6 elections should be postponed as he would be in the Cleveland area on May 6, 1966, for a speaking engagement on May 7, 1966.

[] previously described the results of the Klavern #6 election meeting which was held May 8, 1966, at the Travel Lodge Motel, Brookpark, Ohio.

[] on [] advised that on May 21, 1966 a regular monthly meeting of Klavern #6 was held in Parlor B, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, at which meeting nine Klansmen were in attendance.

At this meeting, it was decided that regular Klan meetings be held the first Thursday of each month at 8:00 P.M. and the third Sunday of each month at 2:00 P.M.

[] on [] informed that on June 2, 1966, a regular monthly meeting of Klavern #6 was held in the Otis Room, Manger Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio. About 19 Klansmen attended the meeting and it mainly concerned the dissatisfaction with [] and the visit of [] to Cleveland, May 28 and 29, 1966. It was decided at this meeting that JAMES R. VENABLE be advised of the Klavern's dissatisfaction with LOYAL JOHNS and the possibility that some Klavern #6 members may go over to the UKA if nothing is done about [redacted]

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that Klavern #6 held a regular monthly meeting on June 19, 1966, in the American Room, Manger Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio. Nine Klansmen showed up for this meeting and they discussed a NKKKK Anniversary Rally to be held at Oregonia, Ohio, July 2-4, 1966; finances of Klavern #6 and possible participation by the Klavern in picketing proposed undersponsorship of the National Christian Conservative Society (NCCS).

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that a Klavern #6 monthly meeting was held July 7, 1966, at the Manger Htel, Cleveland, Ohio, at which meeting eleven Klansmen attended. [redacted] brought up the matter of a $10.00 per month per Klansman assessment that was suggested at a State Executive Board meeting held July 3, 1966 at Oregonia, Ohio. A vote was taken and this proposal was turned down. It was also voted that the Klavern would not send any of its funds outside of the Klavern and [redacted] noted that the members present are beginning to wonder what is happening to Klan funds that are collected.

Klavern #7-Akron, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, meetings, are currently scheduled for every third Sunday in the month. These are closed meetings which are held at the residence of [redacted] North Canton, Ohio. At the present time, [redacted] a member of Klavern #7, is also preparing a garage [redacted] the Market Motors West, 692 West Bowery Street, Akron, Ohio, for a future Klavern #7 meeting site.

[redacted] on [redacted] reported that Klavern #7 held a regular monthly meeting on May 9, 1966 at the home of [redacted] at which meeting about 16 Klavern #7 members were present.

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that Klavern #7 held a regular monthly meeting on May 23, 1966, at the home of [redacted] but he was unable to attend.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that a regular monthly meeting of Klavern #7 was held [redacted] at the home of [redacted] and [redacted] showed up. Very little took place at this meeting.

State Executive Board Meeting and Hearing
July 3, 1966

[redacted] Farm, Oregonia, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that a State Executive Board meeting and hearing was held June 3, 1966 on the farm of [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio. About 19 Executive Board members were present.

At this meeting, charges were brought by [redacted] against [redacted] and [redacted] accusing them of working for the UKA and attending communist meetings. [redacted] and [redacted] admitted that they had, in fact, attended communist meetings; however, [redacted] noted that they did so for the benefit of the Klan. The charges against [redacted] and [redacted] were dropped.

It was also decided at this meeting that the Exalted Cyclops from each Klavern collect an assessment of $10.00 per month from each Klavern member to build up the NKKKK Treasury. This amount would cover both dues and collections.

B. Public Gatherings, Demonstrations

March on Washington, D.C.

[redacted] previously reported on [redacted] that [redacted] former Klabeer of Klavern #6, on January 9, 1966, stated that the Klan planned a March on Washington, D.C. on Memorial Day, 1966. The purpose of the march, according to [redacted] would be to stop integration and force the repeal of the civil rights law. [redacted] remarked "If this march is not successful, the Klan intends to revolt against the Government and start another Civil War." [redacted] stated that he received his information concerning this march from "National Headquarters in Georgia".

[redacted] Apartment #2 ORGANIZATION
Cleveland, Ohio, was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on January 19, 1966, at which time he admitted attending meetings of the NKKKK in Cleveland but denied membership. During this interview, he informed that the Klan was going to march on Washington, D.C., on Independence Day in 1966, to protest civil rights legislation and that it was to decide who is going to run the United States, the whites or the blacks. He was highly critical of the U.S. Government, commenting that they seem only to be concerned with the Negroes and not the whites. He stated that he, himself, was in favor of mass migration by the white people from this country to either Canada or Australia, and leave the country to the Negroes. He advised that he was trying to interest the Klan in this movement. He informed that although he is a citizen of the United States he, himself, had written to the Australian Consulate in New York City about migrating to Australia and was advised that he could not migrate to that country because he did not have an employable background.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that no information has come to his attention regarding a Klan March on Washington, D.C. and if there were any serious efforts in this direction within Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, or nationally, this would most certainly have come to his attention. He did note that [redacted] a current member of Klavern #6 and former officer of this Klavern, has mentioned a "March on Washington" for Memorial Day, 1966, but feels this is [redacted] own idea and no positive steps have actually been taken by him in promoting such an undertaking.

[redacted] advised on [redacted] that he has no information of a proposed march on Washington sponsored by the NKKKK or any other organization. He is aware of no plans by the NKKKK or any other organization for May 30, 1966.

[redacted] advised on [redacted] that JAMES R. VENABLE as Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, is not planning or participating in any march on Washington on May 30, 1966. He has not given his approval for any such march sponsored by any member or Klavern of his organization. [redacted] advised that he is not aware that such a march has ever been proposed to VENABLE.

Picketing of "The Cleveland Press"
Cleveland, Ohio
April 30, 1966

A characterization of the White Citizens Council of Ohio (WCCO) appears in the appendix section of this report.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that the NKKKK will hold a picket demonstration against "The Cleveland Press" a daily newspaper published in Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, April 30, 1966, for a couple of hours, commencing at about 3:00 P.M. "The Cleveland Press" building is located at the northeast corner of East 9th Street and Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. This source advised that [redacted] Ohio [redacted] of the NKKKK from Oregonia, Ohio, is sending letters to all Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio members to meet at 3:00 P.M. April 30, 1966, in the vicinity of "The Cleveland Press" building. [redacted] expect to be in Cleveland for the picket demonstration and may possibly bring Klansmen from southern Ohio.

[redacted] noted that members of the WCCO and the North American Alliance of White People (NAAWP), formerly known as the National Association for the Advancement of White People, were also expected to join the picket demonstration. In this respect, source noted that ROBERT ANNABLE, President of the NAAWP, is running for the office of Ohio State Representative in the 51st House District (Parma and Parma Heights, Ohio) in the May 3, 1966 primaries, and he and his organization will be passing out political handbills in Parma and Parma Heights, Ohio, early the same day. ANNABLE then expects to lead a motorcade from Parma, Ohio, to downtown Cleveland, arriving in time to join the picketing of "The Cleveland Press".

[redacted] on April 25, 1966, expressed a desire to be in Cleveland early enough on April 30, 1966, to join ANNABLE in the motorcade ride to downtown Cleveland; however, he felt he might not be able to arrive in Cleveland in time to do so. A few members of the NKKKK are expected to assist ANNABLE in passing out the political handbills, although, this will only be to assist in the manpower requirements and not as members of the Klan.

[] noted the picket demonstration of "The Cleveland Press" is because of this newspaper's critical stand against the Klan and their refusal to print a paid political advertisement for ROBERT ANNABLE.

[] stated the picketing will be peaceful and no violence is anticipated.

[] Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland, Ohio Police Department, was apprised of the above on April 27, 1966, and advised that police coverage would be afforded the demonstration to insure against any possible violence.

[] on [] advised that about twenty individuals, seventeen adults and three children, peacefully picketed "The Cleveland Press" Building, Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, April 30, 1966, from approximately 4:15 P.M. until 5:30 P.M. The majority of individuals present were members of the NKKKK and they were joined by ROBERT W. ANNABLE, President of the North American Alliance of White People (NAAWP), formerly known as the National Association for the Advancement of White People, and a small group of NAAWP members. Four of the Klansmen wore Klan robes.

[] noted that the picket demonstration of "The Cleveland Press" a daily newspaper published at Cleveland, Ohio, was held because of this newspaper's critical stand against the Klan and their refusal to print a paid political advertisement for ROBERT W. ANNABLE, who is running for the Office of Ohio State Representative in the May 3, 1966 primary election.

During the course of the picket demonstration copies of ROBERT W. ANNABLE's political advertisement entitled, "Lincoln Opposed Integration" were passed out to individuals walking past the area.

[] concluded that the picket demonstration was entirely peaceful and no incidents or arrests occurred.

NKKKK Anniversary Rally
Oregonia, Ohio
July 2-4, 1966

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that at least 11 members from Klaverns #6 and #7 attended the NKKKK Anniversary Rally held on the farm of [redacted] July 2, 3 and 4, 1966, at Oregonia, Ohio.

NKKKK Rally
July 16 and 17, 1966
Near Lodi, Ohio

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[redacted] advised that the NKKKK will hold a rally near Lodi, Ohio, on July 16 and 17, 1966, at the farm of [redacted] [redacted] is a member of the NKKKK and his farm is located on County Route #90, about one and one-half miles west of State Route #76, which is about two miles south of Lodi. The property was leased for $10.00 to the NKKKK for the express purpose of holding a Klan Rally.

[redacted] Ohio [redacted] of the NKKKK, will handle the Press releases for the rally. At the suggestion of [redacted] mimeograph announcements of the rally will be passed out sometime during this week at Cleveland, Akron, Lodi, Medina and Mansfield, Ohio, by members of the NKKKK residing in the vicinity of these municipalities.

[redacted] Medina County, Medina, Ohio, was advised of the above on July 11, 1966. He advised that as in the past adequate arrangements will be made to prevent any violence at the rally.

On July 16, 1966, [redacted] Medina County Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held their rally as scheduled that day on the property of [redacted] in Medina County.

He said that a few people arrived at the site at about 11:00 AM and that when the rally ended that night at about 11:45 P.M., approximately 100 people had been there. However, he indicated that he did not believe that all in attendance were Klansmen and that there were many spectators there, out of curiosity. He said that at about 11:30 P.M. the Klansmen burned three crosses prior to dismissing.

CV 100-10261

On July 17, 1966, Sheriff STUART advised that the rally had continued that day, however, he estimated that only about 25 or 30 persons attended. He said the rally ended that night at about 9:00 P.M. and that no crosses were burned.

Sheriff STUART advised that he had previously received rumors that Klansmen at the rally might wear masks in an attempt to test the Ohio State Law banning the wearing of masks, however, he said that at no time did he receive any reports of Klansmen wearing masks. He said that at about the same time, the crosses were lighted on July 16, 1966, there was a loud noise originating from the rally site. He said that in his opinion, this noise was that of a firecracker and that the same noise was also heard again at the same site at about 12:30 P.M. on July 17, 1966.

At about 8:00 P.M. on July 17, 1966, Sheriff STUART advised his office received reports that some Klansmen were driving up and down the roads adjacent to the rally site, and that upon investigation, they determined that there were two cars and one pickup truck with a total of about eight Klansmen in them. He said that in the back of the pickup truck was a female wearing a Klansmen's robe and also a dummy in a Klansmen's robe. He said that the dummy also was wearing a robe and that from a distance, the dummy appeared to be a person.

b6
b7C
b7D

Sheriff STUART further advised that there were no anti-Klan demonstrators at the rally and that there were no arrests or acts of violence.

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that JAMES VENABLE, National Chairman of the NKKKK, presided over the rally on July 16, 1966, and July 17, 1966.

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that this rally was considered a "flop".

NKKKK Rally
July 23 and 24, 1966
Near Lodi, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that a NKKKK Rally would be held Saturday and Sunday, July 23 and 24, 1966, on the farm of [redacted] is a member of the NKKKK and his farm is located on County Road #90, about 1½ miles west of State Route #76, which is about two miles south of Lodi, Ohio. JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK and Reverend H.G. HILL, Kludd of the NKKKK, are expected to be the principal speakers.

OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

NORMAN J. STUART, Sheriff, Medina County, Medina, Ohio, was advised of the above on July 20, 1966, and he advised that adequate arrangements will be made to prevent any violence at the rally.

Sheriff NORMAN STUART, Medina County Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised on July 23, 1966, that the Klan rally held by [redacted] on the property of [redacted] in Medina County began that afternoon and ended that night at about 11:20 P.M., following the burning of a cross. Sheriff STUART said that during the lighting of the cross, 31 persons were observed to be present, 13 of which had their right hands clasped over their hearts and their left hands extended forward at a 45 degree angle in Nazi-like fashion. He said that [redacted] NKKKK member from Lodi, Ohio, spoke at the rally. He said [redacted] used a loud speaker system for his speech but that later the loud speaker system was turned off and at that time it was announced that during the weekend of July 30 - 31, 1966, they were planning three separate rallies on different sites in Medina County.

Sheriff STUART said that this rally continued on July 24, 1966, and terminated that evening. He said that there were no anti-Klan demonstrators, acts of violence, or arrests.

On [redacted] advised that JAMES VENABLE, National Chairman of the NKKKK, did not attend the above rally but that he is scheduled to appear at rallies in Medina County planned for the weekend of July 30 - 31, 1966.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] and JAMES R. VENABLE were not asked to come to this rally as it was felt it would be a financial flop and that they do not want to bear the expense of bringing these two individuals to the rally. However, it was announced to those in attendance at the rally that VENABLE and [redacted] could not come as scheduled because of the current airline strike.

Three (3) Separate NKKKK Rallies Scheduled to be held on July 30 and 31, 1966
in Medina County, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that the NKKKK will hold three separate rallies in Medina County, Ohio, on July 30 and 31, 1966, at the following locations:

Rally #1

Farm on [redacted]

[redacted]

Rally #2

Property of [redacted] located on State
Route [redacted]

Rally #3

On or near U.S. Route #42, north of Brunswick, Ohio and south of Strongsville, Ohio (Cuyahoga County) and described as "just across the line in Medina County."

[redacted] advised that according to [redacted] Ohio Organizer of the NKKKK, the purpose of holding three separate rallies within Medina County will be to harass Medina County Sheriff NORMAN J. STUART and his staff for the strict measures Sheriff STUART has been imposing on recent NKKKK rallies held in Medina County, which [redacted] believes is the reason for the poor attendance at these recent rallies.

[redacted] further advised that [redacted] plans to have JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK; [redacted] of the NKKKK; and [redacted] another [redacted] of the NKKKK, all from the national organization of the NKKKK in the Atlanta, Georgia area, appear to these rallies as the principal speakers. [redacted] plans to shuttle these three speakers between the three rallies.

Handbills announcing the rallies will be passed out by the Klansmen in downtown Cleveland, Akron, Medina and Lodi, Ohio, and press releases will be made by [redacted]

NORMAN J. STUART, Sheriff, Medina County, Medina, Ohio, was advised of the above on July 26, 1966. He advised that adequate arrangements will be made to prevent any violence at these rallies.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that NKKKK rallies at Sites #2 and #3 were consolidated into the rally at Site #1 on Saturday, July 30, 1966, because of poor attendance and the fact that little preparation was made at Sites #2 and #3. JAMES R. VENABLE gave a speech on July 30, 1966, at Site #1 during the late evening and then returned to Georgia. [redacted] did not come to this rally. A large wooden cross was burned at approximately 11:30 P.M. on July 30, 1966.

[redacted] further advised that on [redacted] there were so few people at Site #1 that the rally was not held on that date and the rally equipment was dismantled starting at about 3:00 P.M.

Sheriff NORMAN J. STUART, on July 30, and again on July 31, 1966, advised that no incidents, acts of violence or arrests took place as a result of these rallies.

IV. FINANCES

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] of Klavern #6, advised on June 14, 1966, that he, [redacted] and [redacted] of Klavern #6, had recently withdrawn the funds of Klavern #6 from the Klavern's bank account maintained at the Cleveland Trust Bank, Cleveland, Ohio, under the name Sportsmen's Educational Fund, and the proceeds, $185.12, were sent to Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE of the National Organization of the NKKKK by bank money order #34003828. The bank check was made payable to VENABLE and the amount sent to him was the entire amount in this account at the time it was closed by [redacted]

[redacted] advised that [redacted] could legally withdraw these funds by virtue of their past offices with Klavern #6; however, they did not have the sanction from Klavern #6 to do so and it was felt that they did this because of Klavern #6's dissatisfaction with [redacted]

CV 100-10261

[] on [] informed that VENABLE was contacted relative to this matter and he advised that one-half of the $185.12 would be returned to Klavern #6.

[] noted that just prior to the above transaction, Klavern #6 had ~~planned~~ to close their account under the name of the Sportsmen's Educational Fund and open another account under the name SWL Radio Club.

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 takes up collections at its meetings from time to time for the Dillsboro Defense Fund for the forthcoming trial of NKKKK members arrested in Dillsboro, Indiana, in connection with a NKKKK rally at Dillsboro in 1965.

V. PUBLICATIONS AND PROPOGANDA

[] on [] and [] on [] informed that the NKKKK in the Northern Ohio area has no publications and has put out no propoganda other than announcements of its rallies in the form of handbills and letters as well as press releases, which have appeared in various news medias.

A. Cooperation with other Organizations

NCCS Picketing of "The Book Mart"
June 18, 1966
Cleveland, Ohio

The National Christian Conservative Society (NCCS) is characterized under the section dealing with the NCCS sponsored speech of JAMES R. VENABLE, May 7, 1966.

[] on [] informed that "The Book Mart" 10011 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, was picketed on June 18, 1966, under sponsorship of the NCCS.

A characterization of "The Book Mart" appears in the appendix of this report.

[] informed that about 17 individuals participated in this picketing and at least 10 were members of the NKKKK. The pickets carried signs which read "Communism is Treason - Close the Communist Book Store".

NCCS Picketing of Union Election
Fisher Body Division
General Motors Corporation
Cleveland, Ohio
June 22, 1966

[] on [] informed that on the same date, the Coit Road Plant of the Fisher Body Division, General Motors Corporation, Cleveland, was picketed by seven individuals under sponsorship of the NCCS. [] identified four of the pickets as members of the NKKKK. These pickets stationed themselves at the main entrance to the plant and passed out circulars protesting the candidacy of [] who was running for the Office of Zone Committee Man, Second Shift, Local #45, of the United Auto Workers at the Coit Road Plant, Fisher Body Division. The circulars that were passed out reflected an affidavit purportedly signed by [] on April 29, 1942, attesting to the fact that he, [] was a member of the Communist Party.

[] - JOHN VICTOR BLANC (deceased), a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP), who has testified on behalf of the Government, advised on a number of occasions during the period 1944 to 1949, when BLANC ceased to be active in the CP, that he knew [] to be a CP member and to have attended and taken part in numerous CP affairs in Cleveland from 1944 to 1949. In 1945, [] was a member of the State Executive Committee of the Ohio CP and in July, 1948, he was elected to the Ohio CP State Committee.

CV 100-10261

[redacted] a self-admitted former member of the CP, who testified on behalf of the Government, advised on August 22, 1953, that he recalled [redacted] attending Ohio State CP meetings prior to July, 1950, and [redacted] also determined CP policy in the union at Fisher Body, Cleveland, Ohio, prior to July, 1950.

NCCS Sponsored Speech by JAMES R. VENABLE
May 7, 1966
Lakewood, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK from Tucker, Georgia, will speak at the Lakewood Civic Auditorium, Lakewood, Ohio, during the evening of May 7, 1966. He is being sponsored by the National Christian Conservative Society (NCCS).

[redacted] noted that the National Christian Conservative Society was founded by [redacted] who utilizes the title of Chairman. [redacted] is also the [redacted] the North American Alliance of White People (NAAWP) which was formerly known as the National Association for the Advancement of White People. [redacted] originally conceived the idea of the NCCS during October, 1965, as a vehicle to circumvent the new Ohio Fair Housing Law which precludes discrimination against the Negro race in housing matters. The NCCS was not a success in its original intent and is now utilized by ANNABLE to give him cover from his association with the NAAWP.

[redacted] noted that [redacted] a [redacted] will also be a featured speaker. [redacted] in the Archbishop of the African Universal Church and Commercial League Corporation of East Orange, New Jersey.

[redacted] Lakewood Police Department, on April 27, 1966, advised that in view of the above, the Lakewood Police Department expects to maintain a small plain-clothes detail within the auditorium during the affair and three patrolmen outside the auditorium to insure that ingress and egress will be orderly and to preclude any incidents. In addition, there will be a reserve squad at police headquarters in case of actual violence.

b6
b7C
b7D

On [] informed that VENABLE's speech at the Lakewood Civic Auditorium on the night of May 7, 1966, outlined the history of the Ku Klux Klan and VENABLE appealed for Klan membership as well as moral and financial support. VENABLE stated that the battle of the Ku Klux Klan was against mongrelization and communism and further that it was not true that the Klan was against Catholics, Jews or Negroes.

[] in his speech, advocated racial segregation and asked white people to stop "flattering" the Negroes because there is a difference between the races.

[] noted that at least 25 members of the NKKKK attended VENABLE's speech.

B. Statements and Acts Leaning Toward Violence

Cross Burning at Negroe's Farm,
July 11, 1966
Near Lodi, Ohio

[] on [] informed that at about 12:15 A.M., July 11, 1966, three members of the NKKKK burned a twenty foot high wooden cross near the farm house of a farm recently purchased by a Negro couple. This farm is located outside of Lodi, Ohio, Medina County, U.S. Route #42, just north of U.S. Route #224. [] did not know the name of the Negro couple.

Transportation of Firearms MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[] on [] informed that on May 16, 1966, he learned that the NKKKK is still considering the use of a green and white camping trailer owned by NKKKK member [] as a method to transport firearms to Klan rallies. This is the same trailer that was seen at Klan rallies at Lodi and Brunswick Hills Township, Ohio, during the Summer of 1965. It was planned that a few firearms would be hidden in obvious places to be purposely found by law enforcement officials, however, the bulk of the firearms would be well hidden under the bunks in the trailer. It was noted that firearms had been successfully transported to Klan rallies in this manner.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[] on [] informed that the aforementioned trailer has not been seen at any NKKKK rallies that have taken place in Ohio during 1966. In addition, [] noted that he has not seen [redacted] who is from the Cincinnati, Ohio area, at any of the recent rallies and felt this was the reason that the trailer has not made its appearance at any of these rallies.

C. Possible Merger of Klans

[redacted] advised on [redacted] that JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, on July 16, 1966, informed that it is very likely that the UKA and NKKKK and possibly one of the other major Klans would merge into one strong Klan in the near future. VENABLE noted that the UKA and NKKKK are already in the process of merging in Delaware, Maryland, and one other state [redacted] could not recall.

D. Organizing of UKA in Ohio and Effect on NKKKK

Organization of UKA in Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] was [redacted] of Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, until early 1966 when it became apparent that he was having difficulty in running Klavern #7, based in part, on his differences with [redacted]

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

During April, 1966, [redacted] announced a Klan rally to be held in Edinburg, Ohio during April, 1966, but this rally was cancelled. [redacted] subsequently did hold Klan rallies at Edinburg, Ohio; one each in May, June and July, 1966. These rallies were not considered successful and NKKKK members were told that they were not to attend any of [redacted] rallies. [redacted] originally identified these rallies only as "Klan Rallies" and did not make any indication as to their affiliation with any particular National Klan Organization, although it was subsequently learned that he was affiliating with the UKA.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] of Klavern #7 and a local organizer for the NKKKK, had been ostracized and the members of Klavern #7 were advised not to associate with [redacted] or to attend any of his rallies.

CV 100-10261

[] on [] informed that [] has affiliated with the UKA and the purpose of his rallies was to recruit members for the UKA.

"The Akron-Beacon Journal" a daily newspaper published in Akron, Ohio, on May 29, 1966, carried an interview of HOWARD C. LEWIS in connection with Klan rallies he expected to hold in Edinburg, Ohio. This article states that HOWARD C. LEWIS noted that his group plans to merge with Mr. ROBERT SHELTON's group soon.

In respect to the above, it is noted that [] is the [] of the UKA.

Loss of NKKKK Membership to the UKA

[] on [] informed that [] of the UKA, met with about 20 to 25 individuals at the Downtowner Motel, Cleveland, Ohio, on May 30, 1966. [] was in the Cleveland, Ohio area to give a speech which was sponsored by the NCCS.

[] noted that most of the individuals in attendance at this conference with [] were persons he recognized as being members connected with the NKKKK and/or NCCS and further that 10 of these individuals were members of Klavern #6.

[] spoke of the Klan movement and answered questions. He prefaced his remarks by stating that he was not in Ohio to take members away from any other Klan organization but anyone wanting to join the UKA could do so. It was also brought out at this conference that the Klan rallies recently held by [] in Edinburg, Ohio, were to sign up members for the UKA.

[] noted that while at this conference with [] six members of the NKKKK mentioned that they were leaving the NKKKK and were going over to the UKA.

[] also noted that he learned that [] held private conferences with NKKKK members and [] told one NKKKK member, "We're ready to start pushing in Ohio to organize the UKA here."

CV 100-10261

[] on [] advised that at a NKKKK Klavern #6 meeting held June 2, 1966, it was decided to inform JAMES R. VENABLE of the dissension within Klavern #6 because of the Klavern's dissatisfaction with [] and the possibility that some of the members of Klavern #6 would go over to the UKA if nothing is done about []

[] on [] informed that two NKKKK members advised him on June 18, 1966, that they are going over to the UKA and would not be at the next Klavern #6 meeting.

[] on [] informed that these two Klansmen were not present at the Klavern #6 meeting held June 19, 1966.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past concerning Klan matters, on 8/8/66 advised that while at the NKKKK rally held 8/7/66 near Lodi, Ohio, [redacted] of the NKKKK, mentioned he might go to Chicago this weekend (8/13,14/66) to seek rally sites. Later on in day [redacted] mentioned that he and [redacted] a member of NKKKK Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, may go to Hopewell, Va., where the Klan had recently confronted a group of Negro civil rights marchers who had made demands at the Hopewell City Hall. [redacted] mentioned that there would be similar activity in Hopewell this weekend (8/13,14/66) and he and [redacted] might just go there.

[redacted] noted that none of [redacted] plans for the coming weekend are definite, although he believes [redacted] is serious about holding a rally sometime in the future in the Chicago area. In this respect, [redacted] solicited [redacted]

A confidential source, who has cooperated with this office on numerous occasions in the past, advised on [redacted] that a full page advertisement announcing an NKKKK rally scheduled for August 6, 1966 and August 7, 1966 in Medina County, Ohio, appeared in the August 4, 1966 edition of the Akron Beacon Journal, an Akron, Ohio daily newspaper. He said that this advertisement contained the "Klansmen's Creed," an application for membership in the NKKKK, a request for donations to be sent to NKKKK, Post Office Box 175, Oregonia, Ohio, an open letter announcing that JAMES B. VENABLE, NKKKK Imperial Wizard, would be there and inviting the public to attend the rally. The letter, he said, was signed [redacted] NKKKK Association of America. This source advised that the ad was purchased by [redacted].

[redacted] He said the cost of the ad was $809.00, but inasmuch as [redacted] paid cash for it he got a 2 per cent discount. According to this source, [redacted] appeared at the Akron Beacon Journal three different times before an agreement was reached regarding the ad. He said that [redacted] was reluctant to have his name placed in the ad but that the newspaper would not agree to print it unless his name was placed in it.

A [redacted] confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 6, 1966 that an NKKKK rally was held on the property of [redacted] near Lodi, Ohio, in Medina County that day. He said that Imperial Wizard VENABLE did not appear at the rally and that the [redacted] NKKKK Kludd, was the principal speaker. He estimated the attendance at about 100 and said about 25 or 30 individuals wore Klan robes. He further advised that the proceedings were orderly and ended about 11:00 p.m. with the burning of a cross.

An article in the August 7, 1966 edition of the Akron Beacon Journal estimated attendance at the rally on August 6, 1966 at about 150 persons.

Medina County Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised on August 8, 1966 that his office had estimated attendance at the rally on August 6, 1966 at about 200 and the attendance on August 7, 1966 at about 30. He said a collection was taken at the rally on August 6, 1966 to pay for an ad which appeared in the Akron Beacon Journal on August 4, 1966. A cross was burned at the end of the rally the evening of August 6, 1966, he said, but no cross was burned on August 7, 1966. He further advised that the rally terminated at about 6:30 p.m. on August 7, 1966, and that there were no incidents, arrests or acts of violence either day of the rally.

KKK Will Ask King's Arrest

King Is Termed Murderer For Part In Riots

By Martha Edmiston
Journal Herald Staff Writer

OREGONIA, O. — A Ku Klux Klan delegation from six states will go to Chicago, Ill., Saturday to demand the arrest of Rev. Martin Luther King "for aiding in a murder plot" in the riot-torn city.

This announcement was made here yesterday by Parkie A. Scott, national organizer for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, who will be one of the representatives.

Said Scott:

"Who has organized the marches? Who has led them into murders and rioting? We are going to demand of Mayor Richard Daley that he arrest Martin Luther King.

"We may have to use nigger tactics and demand an appointment with the mayor. We're going to demand to be treated as equal citizens. Right now we're fifth class citizens in the eyes of the government and the nigger is the Number 1 citizen."

Scott said a rally, slated for Aug. 20 at Chicago's Soldiers Field is still in the books "as far as we know."

"It's not a rally for the Klan alone but for every white citizen who's opposed to this killing and rioting and looting. We'll guarantee this—the Klan is in charge there will be none of this stuff," he declared.

"The federal government is just as guilty as the man who pulls the trigger. It doesn't do a thing to stop the niggers from rioting and killing. It doesn't enforce laws against them. But it did pass laws against the Klan."

Scott said the Klan is "almost sure of 6,000 people" at the rally from the Chicago area alone. He predicts the stadium at Soldiers Field won't hold the crowd expected Aug. 20.

"The people in Chicago who tried to stand against this battle have been arrested. No colored people were arrested. We don't want that kind of justice—we want to do something about it," he stated.

Scott said the Klan has "heard well-founded rumors that there will be riots in 32 more cities this year."

He believes:

"Dayton especially will be hit. Dayton is a place where more race hate is put out than any other city, because they (the Negroes) hate themselves and hate the white for being white.

"I don't say that about all of them. There are good colored people in Dayton. I work and associate with many on my job and they respect what I am trying to do," he added.

Scott denied reports the stadium might not be open to the Klansmen for organizing a rally.

"Our committee met last week with three top board members, the president and vice president in charge of the Chicago parks. They didn't see any reason we couldn't use the stadium the same as the civil rights groups. And we feel if they're admitted, we should be too," Scott declared.

Klan representatives who will form Saturday's committee to demand Mr. King's arrest will come from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, Georgia and ~~Illinois~~, Scott said.
